COOK MAKES REPLY TO PEARY'S CHARGE

SAYS HE CAN PROVE HIS CLAIM

Will Bring Eskimos From
The North Land to Refute
Charges Made Against Him

(Associated Press Telegram)
Copenhagen, Sept. 9.—When shown the charges made by Commander Peary that Dr. Frederick A. Cook had not reached the north pole as claimed, the latter replied:

"I have been to the north pole. As I said when I heard of Commander Peary's success, if he says he has been to the pole, I believe him.

"I am willing to place facts, figures and worked-out observations before a joint tribunal of the scientific bodies of the world. In due course I shall be prepared to make public an announcement that will effectually dispel any doubt, if there can be such, of the fact that I have reached the pole. But knowing that I am right, and that right must prevail, I will submit at the proper time my full story to the court of last resort—the people of the world.

"I will not enter into any controversy over the subject with Commander Peary, further than to say that if he says I have taken his Eskimos, my reply is that Eskimos are nomads. They are owned by nobody and are not the private property of either Commander Peary or myself. The Eskimos engaged by me were paid 10 times what they agreed to accompany me for.

"As to the story that Commander Peary says I took provisions stored by him, my reply is that Peary took my provisions, obtaining them from the custodian on the plea that I had been so long absent that he was going to organize relief stations for me in case I should be alive. For this I have documentary proof."

Coming to quickly upon other dramatic incidents of the week, Commander Peary's dispatch denying that Dr. Cook had achieved the triumph for which he has been feted and honored in Copenhagen beyond the lot of any other person, has been read here with feelings of amazement and concern. But Dr. Cook himself seems in no wise disturbed. He was perfectly cool and apparently unmoved when confronted with telegrams from the United States saying that Commander Peary has denounced him as an impostor. His demeanor has not changed in the slightest from the day he landed at Copenhagen.

Friends Urge Action.
Dr. Cook's friends had urged him to their utmost to make any statement possible to the public, but he had said repeatedly that all he had to say for the present was that he possessed proofs that he had visited the north pole on April 21, 1908. Those proofs were convincing and in due time would be given to the world.

When it was suggested to him that his chances of proving his case might be ruined unless he made a satisfactory statement immediately, he smiled his usual quiet smile and asked how could a man be ruined by popular clamor calling him an impostor when

SQUIRRELS ARE EXPENSIVE JUST NOW

Squirrels are expensive at this time of year, particularly Tiverton squirrels.

G. F. Mitchell, one of a party of campers on the Mohicon river was arrested by B. B. Ferenbaugh, fish and game warden, under a search warrant issued in the court of Squire H. C. Miller at Tiverton. Six squirrels were found in his possession, and the squire assessed a fine of $50 and costs—a little over $5 for each squirrel.

ZED HARRINGTON BUYS PROPERTY

Zed Harrington purchased a fine piece of property on Locust-st. Thursday through McConnell and Karr, real estate agents, and expects to build a new home early in the spring.

CHARGED WITH CALLING BAD NAMES

Geo. Lapp was fined $1 and costs by Mayor Hamilton Monday on charges preferred by David Holdsworth, who alleged that Lapp called him vile and indecent names.

POTTER BOY CHARGED WITH THROWING STONES

Clara Kohl filed charges against Harrison Potter Wednesday evening in Squire Wimmer's court charging him with a breach of the peace. It is alleged that Potter threw stones and clubs on the dwelling of Mrs. Kohl's mother, Mrs. Mary Ann Deeds.

Consolidation of Franklin Township Schools Dropped

The Franklin township schools will open next Monday. The proposed plan of consolidating the schools and erecting a large building at a cost of about $5,000 has been practically abandoned for the present at least.

William Wagoner, one of the members of the school board, states that it is probable that a building for the Willis Creek district will be built next summer at a cost of about $1,500. For the school year which is about to open the old building will be used. It is stated that the objection to it is that it is unhandy of access for the children, being off the road since the new bridge was built. Besides the floor of the schoolhouse is often covered with water when the creek rises. The new schoolhouse to be built next summer will probably be placed about a quarter of a mile away from the present building. It is stated that at at least one new building is an actual necessity.

When the centralization plan was discussed, the board advertised for bids but the bids were all too high. The teachers at each of the six districts outside of the Conesville Special district will be as follows, the teachers being the same as last year with the exception of Miss Teale in District five.

District one, Willis Creek, J. L. Borden-Fischer.
District two, Robinson school, Miss Mary Biggs.
District three, Pine Grove school, W. F. Brecht.
District four, Science Hill school, G. T. Vinsel.
District five, Coalport, primary, Miss Inez Teale.
District six, Coalport, grammar, Alton Cox.

DOCTOR HELD FOR MURDER

Police Make Sudden Move
In Case of Miss Maybelle
Millman of Ann Arbor.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Detroit, Sept. 9.—Detectives have caused the arrest of Dr. George A. Fritch, a well-known practitioner of this city, on suspicion in connection with the death of Miss Maybelle Millman of Ann Arbor, whose dismembered body was found in two sacks sunk in Ecorse creek, in the western suburbs of the city.

Miss Martha Henning, former chum of the dead girl, was also taken into custody and is being held as a witness.

Dr. Fritch is registered as follows on the blotter at the central police station: "George A. Fritch; offense charged, suspicion of murder; occupation, physician; age 42; married; color, white; residence, 655 Trumbull avenue; father and mother both born in Canada; arresting officers, Detectives Parker and Allen."

The arrest of Dr. Fritch followed the hurried return of Sheriff Gaston from Ann Arbor, where he had spent most of the day looking up clues in the Millman case. So unexpectedly did the scene of investigation shift to Detroit that the Wayne county sheriff's arrival here was almost simultaneous with the arrival at the Ann Arbor postoffice of a Washington telegram authorizing Postmaster Prentiss to submit the records of the money order and registered letter departments to the inspection of Mr. Gaston. All day this authorization had been anxiously awaited by the officials gathered at Ann Arbor in the hope that the postoffice records would show who had been the sender of a registered letter containing a remittance of money which Miss Millman received at her home just before leaving on her ill-starred trip to Detroit three weeks ago.

Examine Girl's Chum.

Although Miss Martha Henning was seen to enter the conference in Chief McConnell's room, Sheriff Gaston would not even admit that Miss Henning had returned to the city. Detectives Parker and Allen appeared, escorting a short, thin man with a sandy mustache, who had not hitherto appeared in the investigations. This man proved to be Dr. Fritch. Miss Henning and Dr. Fritch both remained in the detective office for about half an hour, and then the doctor was taken into a separate room, while the girl was subjected to further questioning in the absence of the physician.

After an hour's time Miss Henning was taken up stairs to the matron's room, and Dr. Fritch was led to the cell block in the basement. Chief of Detectives McConnell then turned to the assembled newspaper men and made a brief statement. He said:

"We have locked up Dr. George A. Fritch on suspicion of murdering Maybelle Millman. We have worked on the case all day and would not arrest him unless we had sufficient evidence to justify our action."

Dr. Fritch was previously arrested in connection with the mysterious death of Miss Edith Presley, proof-reader for the state senate, who died under suspicious circumstances in Detroit in April, 1907. Two criminal prosecutions were started after the Presley tragedy, and when the case against a member of the lower house of the legislature was thrown out of court for lack of sufficient evidence, the case against Dr. Fritch, which depended much upon obtaining conviction of the legislator, was nolle prossed.

PATTERSON CASE POSTPONED TILL SEPTEMBER 15

The Patterson liquor case which was to have been heard in Mayor Hamilton's court Thursday has been carried over until September 15, on account of Atty. Glenn one of the lawyers in the case being interested in the Clark and Crawford cases at West Lafayette and the convening of court Monday.

BANKERS CONGREGATE AT COSHOCTON COUNTRY CLUB

Lawsuit Ended In Talk Of Shooting

For the second time in one day George Lapp figured in court. Thursday afternoon J. E. Sturtz swore out a warrant for his arrest in Squire Wimmer's court charging him with an attempt to provoke a breach of the peace. After a lively word war between the two men with the squire interposing at intervals Lapp paid his fine of $1 and costs. "Squire" said Lapp, swear me out an affidavit to the effect that if this man ever crosses my land I will shoot him. It looked for some time as though the men would get into it hot and heavy right before the squire's eyes but the latter soon pacified the en to a certain degree and they finally left the office.

Keene W. C. T. U. Had Happy Outing

Wednesday was a red letter day for the members of the families of the Keene W. C. T. U. and the visitors who attended their picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Erastus Boyd.

A large company enjoyed the excellent dinner, and the social hours were full of fun. Amusing games, including races by old and young men on the program. A three legged race by Grover Porter Samuel, Elliott Lester McCormick and Clifford Boyd ended in a tie. A potato race by Zelpha McCormick, Mary Dawson, Mildred Boyd; a potato race by Jennie Mizer, Emma Katherine Whittemore, Mary I. Crawford and Winifred Whittemore, won by Winifred Whittemore; childrens race won by Edwin Crawford; running race by Nellie Whittemore and Benton Porter won by Nellie Whittemore; everybodys' race won by Grover Porter.

After the social hours all joined in singing America and Rev. D. A. Norris gave a short address which was greatly enjoyed by all. He spoke of the good work the women of the organization have done in securing laws regarding the teaching in public schools, of physiology and hygiene, with special reference to the nature and effects of alcoholic drinks, and in arousing public sentiment in temperance work, and the help they have been to the Anti-saloon League. He told of the progress of the temperance work in the south and urged all to be earnest and faithful until victory is assured over the whole country.

Misses Lela Hamilton and Meriam Whittemore gave recitations, and after closing hymn, the company disbanded, pronouncing the picnic a decided success.

DICK CLARK CASE AT LAFAYETTE IS ON TODAY

The Clark and Crawford liquor cases are being tried in Mayor Adams court at West Lafayette today and are progressing very slowly.

Dick Clark was the first case up. It started at 10 o'clock. The first witness called for the state was Detective Reasoner. He told of the raid etc. Reasoner was on the stand all morning and part of the afternoon answering a rapid fire of questions shot at him in galling gun style. In hopes that the Clark case could be finished in time to take up the Crawford one and finish it also in the one day.

BRIDE IS HELD FOR MURDER

CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 9.—Scott Sprague, a machinist from Williamsburg, Ohio, was shot and killed in his apartments here. His bride of two weeks is held on suspicion.

LINE FENCE CAUSES TROUBLE IN ROSCOE

A partition fence in Roscoe is causing J. B. Cullison and Harris Scott and Kezlake B. Schott loads of trouble. Thursday morning Cullison through his attorney L. N. Staats, filed in common pleas a petition asking for an injunction against the Scotts, restraining them from tearing down the partition fence and building another which he claims will take off a strip of five feet of his land.

The fence was constructed between the two parties' lands in 1900. The defendants it is alleged have threatened to tear down the old fence and build a new one five feet south of where the present one now stands. In so doing the plaintiff claims that the defendants threaten to trample down his growing corn crop and dispossess him of his grounds thus interfering with his rights. The injunction is sought to keep the defendants from doing these acts. A temporary restraining order is also asked.

Ray Hill Dies In Cleveland

Ray Hill, aged 55, died Tuesday evening at his home in Cleveland, after undergoing an operation upon glands of the throat. The exact nature of the disease of the glands is not known, as physicians thought at first it was tuberculosis. But later decided that the trouble was a cancerous growth. Mr. Hill is the oldest son of A. J. Hill of Coshocton, and is survived by his wife, who was Miss Cora Laughhead of Newcomerstown, and the following sisters;

Mrs. L. D. Schott of Roscoe, Mrs. Wolford and Mrs. Fowelson of Coshocton. Wm. Hill of Dennison and Miss Nellie Hill of Coshocton are step brother and sister.

PROMINENT MEN OF SOUTHEASTERN OHIO VISIT REAL LIVE TOWN

Were Taken Over The City In Autos And Business Session Was Held On Spacious Porch At The Club—Good Speeches Are Being Made.

LIST OF VISITORS

Half a hundred bankers of the southeastern corner of Ohio, are guests of the Coshocton bankers Thursday afternoon at the Country club.

Coshocton's cordiality was never better shown than today. The greater portion of the visitors arrived on Panhandle Train 18 and were met by the members of the reception committee and escorted at once to waiting automobiles and taken for a spin over the city. They visited the Standard plant of the Meek Co. and marvelled at the making of lithograph signs. They were shown the immense new buildings of the Clow Co., the busy factories and beautiful homes all over the city; they declared they then understood why it is Coshocton citizens are always "for Coshocton."

The two hours' drive ended at the Country club where luncheon was awaiting them. It was a jovial feast and at its close, the business session was held on the cool and spacious front porch, with W. P. Sharer of the First National bank, of Zanesville, in the chair.

The dinner was served at about 1 o'clock. The tables distributed throughout the club house and covers were laid for sixty-one. The dinner was served by Misses Mary Selby and Ann Anderson, Jessie Pope, Elsie Miller, Veronica Hanley, Helen Lamberson, Elsie Severns, Helen Brooks, Helen Temple, Helen Denman. The dinner was served most beautifully and expeditiously it taking only one hour in serving. The menu was most delicious and the dishes were excellent.

COOK MAKES REPLY TO PEARY'S CHARGES

he had 1000 of his case which could and would be published, as he had often repeated, when they were in proper form to be given out.

Regarding the controversy over his alleged taking of Peary's stores, Dr. Cook asserts that he has written and other satisfactory evidence that Peary took his stores, perhaps believing him dead.

"Harry Whitney is personally acquainted with all the facts and perhaps what he has to say when he returns may be interesting," added the explorer. Then Cook remarked quickly: "Make as little as you can of this, and don't say anything disagreeable about Peary."

Dr. Cook told Captain Sverdrup and another friend the day he landed here that he hoped there would be no unpleasantness over supplies with the Peary party; that he had found some of Peary's men in possession of one of his depots and had turned them out unceremoniously.

Esquimos as Witnesses.
It is settled that Cook will send a ship back to bring to America the two Eskimos who accompanied him on the last stage of his journey to the pole, as well as some of the party who were sent back when the start of the last stage began.

Dr. Cook's purpose in bringing his Eskimos to America is to have them relate their stories of the trip to the pole. He proposes to have them examined by men familiar with the Arctic and the Eskimo, including the members of Peary's party, if they wish.

Dr. Cook's apparent confidence in his support in Copenhagen. Those who have had the opportunity to talk with him are only of one mind, that he is an absolutely sincere, simple man, and deserves a pedestal in history as one of the greatest explorers.

When the latter alternative was suggested to him he merely expressed the conviction that time, even if there was no other evidence, would confirm him in his statements, because with the rapid advance of the means of travel his route would soon be visited by others, who could pass judgment on his testimony.

The Politician, in his leader, says: "Danes, remembering Peary's bad treatment of one of their own explorers, will not be surprised at his attitude toward Dr. Cook."

MAKES SLOW PROGRESS

Peary's Ship Revisited Short of Coal on Dash For Home.

Red Bay, Labrador, Sept. 8.—Home-ward bound on the steamship Roosevelt, Commander Robert E. Peary has arrived at Red Bay Harbor just above the opening of the Strait of Belle Isle, and approximately 65 miles above this point.

As the telegraph station at Chateau Bay, 25 miles northeast of here, is closed, the Roosevelt's next stop likely will be here, although it was at first intended that she stop at the former place. At one time the Roosevelt was reported at Blanc Sablon, southwest of here and 100 miles from Red Bay Harbor, but latest advices merely chronicle her arrival at Red Bay Harbor, with her exact location thereafter in doubt. Coal is sorely needed on board, and it is reported that part of the vessel's woodwork has been used as fuel.

News from Red Bay Harbor is most meager, but advices which reached here say that the Roosevelt was sighted at that port. Her speed is uncertain, but she is expected to stop here or go on to Blanc Sablon today, whence after a short call she will proceed on her way to North Sydney, Cape Breton, about 475 miles to the southwest.

The Roosevelt is expected to reach North Sydney Saturday or Sunday.

"Cook's story should not be taken too seriously. The two Eskimos, who accompanied him, say he went no distance north and not out of sight of land. Other members of the tribe corroborate their story. PEARY."

Presents Pole to Taft.

Beverly, Mass., Sept. 9.—Commander Peary delivered the north pole to President Taft, who replied, congratulating the explorer, but declining to do it until he knew exactly what he could do with the pole.

"Yes, I think I've all the reason in the world to make it impossible. I think it's time for you to realize it."

CHAPTER XVII

EMMA moved toward the door, but her husband ran and intercepted her.

"Wait a minute. You can't go that way," he said determinedly. "You are my wife, and you can't leave here without some explanation."

"I've no explanation to make," she retorted coolly. "You will please let me go. I've done my part, and it's my right to leave."

"I tell you I won't let you go until you tell me the truth. What happened with Williams, and how did you induce him to agree?"

"You're no right to ask that. The price I paid for that letter is none of your business. You set that price at the highest possible figure a woman can pay. Now, how I bargained or what I paid is none of your affair."

"It is my affair. I want to know, and I will know."

"When you sent me to that man, Joe Brooks, I told you that if I made the bargain I was to make it alone, that it was to be my business alone and that I should never be asked. You agreed. I've carried out my part. You carry out yours. I gave you your freedom. You give me mine."

"There is only one reason why you should leave here now, and that is Williams. Are you going back to him?"

She stepped back from him and swept him with a look of cold disdain.

"If there was one thing left for you to do to make you the most contemptible cad you've done it now," she exclaimed. "When you sent me to Williams I thought you'd sunk as low as you could, but I see I was mistaken. There was a depth that even in my disgust, my loathing of you, I never imagined existed. But now you've reached it. I don't hate you. I just pity you."

A gleam of fury glowed in his eyes under this merciless castigation, and he moved toward her menacingly.

"That's not the answer I want," he said harshly. "You're quibbling. Tell me the truth about Williams."

"You'd better let me go."

"You'll tell me the truth about Williams before you leave this room," he shouted. "Make up your mind to that now, because that's just the way it's going to be."

She realized that she had gone too far in her denunciation, that his anger was dangerous and that he would stop at nothing, not even blows, not even murder. He was white, his teeth were set, and on his quivering face was an expression of ferocious determination that warned her that she must temporize and appear to give in to him.

"Very well," she assented, turning from the door. "If that's the way it's going to be I'm perfectly willing."

"Then answer me."

"I intend to do that, but I intend to do something more than merely answer that question. If you don't mind, we'd better sit down."

"I won't let you go until you tell me the truth."

She motioned him to a chair and seated herself so that the table was between them.

"In the first place," she went on, very calmly, "in order to relieve your mind I might tell you that I have done nothing tonight which can reflect upon me as a good woman. I had no intention of doing any such thing. So far as I can find out, you are the only person who has my degradation in mind and was willing that it should happen if it resulted in your escaping the consequences of being a thief."

"What do you mean?"

"I mean that Captain Williams did not have the slightest idea of putting a price on your freedom toward which I in any way would have to contribute. You seem to be the only one who thought that I, with all I hold precious, was a fair figure to offer. Had I gone, had I demanded, had I submitted and brought back that paper and given myself to you again, as well as your freedom, you would have been contented and happy."

"You know that's not true, Emma," he protested. "The white heat of his ire had been dulled by her quietness, and little by little he was becoming cowed."

"I know it is true, Joe, and so do you. I wanted to go to mother without having all this talk but now that we have to talk let's be frank with each other and with ourselves. And you try to appreciate the truth as much as you are able. To begin with, it seems that I have been alone in not realizing how worthless you are. My father when we were to be married warned me not to take you unless I thought you indispensable to my happiness. You know that every one else put it a little more bluntly. But I thought I loved you—I'm sure I did. Now it seems utterly beyond belief. But then it must have been love. I mistook your egotism for a deeper sentiment, a determination of purpose, and I thought in my girlish way that the things you preached about socialism, the cruelty of the rich and all that meant that you were noble, self-sacrificing, even brilliant. Now I know the difference. You fight capital? God sometimes is kind to a fighter, but he can't have much use for a man who whines."

"You believed me then, Emma," he said brokenly, "you know you did—you know you did."

"That's the wonderful part of it. I've always believed you till tonight, and now I know I never should have believed you. You've always been a liar, and you've always been dishonest at heart. Your incompetency, the way you were distracted by your employers, I thought was hard luck, injustice. But now I know that you pervert were and never will be the least bit of good to yourself or any one else. You married me to help yourself. You tried to disgrace me to help yourself. I was willing to meet the situation, but you couldn't, and tonight you wanted to sell me to help yourself. I pity you from the bottom of my heart. I think I've told you the reason why I cannot live with you any longer."

"She rose."

"Emma," he supplicated humbly, "it will all be different. Let me start out again. Give me another chance. I'll never lie to you again, and I'll never take a cent that isn't my own. I promise you I won't."

She shook her head.

"Oh, yes, you will. You can't help it. Captain Williams told me tonight that a woman who was good couldn't be bad and a woman who was bad couldn't be good. It's that way with men. One who is inherently honest could never be dishonest, and one who is inherently dishonest could never be honest. You are both a thief and a liar, and there is no hope for you. You've struck the downward path, and you'll keep on going until the end. If you ever had a chance it was with me, and you've thrown it away. I'm sorry, more sorry than I can feel. Goodbye."

He leaped to the door, which she was about to open, and placed his hand against it.

"Emma, you mustn't go. You can't go. I will not let you go."

"I will go, and I request that you will open the door," she said firmly.

FIVE MEN INDICTED

Are Charged With Crooked Work In McCann Trial.

Chicago, Sept. 9.—At the trial of Edward McCann, the former police inspector, who is charged with malfeasance in office and grafting, sensational interest was aroused when five men were indicted by the grand jury on a charge of conspiracy to interfere with state witnesses in the case. The men indicted were Michael Heitler, George Kirach, Samuel Bloom, Charles Hirsch and Harry London. All are well known characters in McCann's old district.

DELUGE WIPES OUT VILLAGES

Priests Return From Tour Of Mexico's Flood Zone—People Are Without Food

[Associated Dallas Telegram]

Monterey, Mexico, Sept. 9.—Priests and others who have traveled over miles of devastated country, arrived in this city, bringing the first intelligence of the destruction wrought by the recent floods in the outlying districts. Their stories indicate that the havoc is more widespread and terrible than was at first believed.

The priest of Arrambergi has informed Archbishop Lenares that Arrambergi was destroyed, and his people are wandering over the country in search of food. The destruction of the roads made it impossible to send in relief supplies.

The story brought in by the priest of La Ascension is to the effect that this town and its population of 2,000 souls have entirely disappeared. He does not know where the people are. They may have taken to the hills or they may have perished. "Not a stone was left upon a stone in La Ascension," the village priest said. "Where there was once rich farms there is now nothing but water."

Another priest, from Allende, says that place also has disappeared, with large loss of life, and that the neighboring fields have been converted into lakes. The priests were more than a week in making their way into Monterey. They described the destruction as the most awful that ever has been experienced in Mexico. Aid is urgently needed in these outlying districts, particularly as the authorities are busy with Monterey and its vicinity. Bustamante and La Escondida have been added to the list of destroyed villages.

PROPRIETARY MEDICINE FRAUDS

There have been plenty of them, no doubt, and they have been rigorously condemned—so rigorously, that every sort of medicine, the formula of which is privately owned, is condemned and pronounced "unethical" by the Medical Profession.

Eckman's Alternative deserves attention, not because it is a "proprietary" but because it really has cured many cases of Tuberculosis. If it is a fraud it needs exposing badly, because a number of cured Consumptives, will need to find some other reason for being well.

Henry Clay said he would rather be right than be President. Is it not better for Eckman's Alternative to make cures than to be ethical?

Weldon, Ill., Feb. 3, 1906.

In July, 1905, my physician sent me to Texas, from there to Colorado. I became worse and was sent home to die. I heard of Eckman's Alternative, began treatment, and was cured. I earnestly recommend Eckman's wonderful cure for Consumption.

(Signed affidavit) Arthur Webb.

POINTS OUT FLAWS IN PRIMARY LAW

Thompson Says It Confuses Voters in Present Form

Columbus, O., Sept. 9.—In discussing the operation of the new Bronson primary law, Secretary of State Thompson said:

"Of course I am more familiar with the mechanical operation of the primary election law than with its general results. There was, as might be expected, much confusion among the voters generally and the boards of elections, concerning the details of this measure. This department has been very busy for the last four or five weeks construing this statute and assisting the boards of elections in placing it in operation, but I am sure that this confusion arose on account of the newness of the statute. No doubt, we have all made some mistakes, and some details of the statute will have to be corrected by legislation, but upon the whole, it appears to have worked satisfactorily."

"In my judgment it is entirely too early to make any estimate as to the value of the law, for it has been only partially tested. It will have its complete test next spring, when county officers, delegates to district and state conventions, as well as party committees, will be chosen."

Wellman Abandons Plans

Christiania, Sept. 9.—A special dispatch from Tromsøe says that Walter Wellman has instructed his agent to arrange for the return of all the explorer's property from Virgo, Bar, Spitzbergen, as well as the three men who were to have spent the winter there. It is understood that Mr. Wellman has abandoned his plans for reaching the north pole by airship for next year.

The Root Juice Sensation Continues

AS SO MANY PEOPLE ARE PRAISING IT

Wonderful things are happening here these days. The new medicine, Root Juice, is certainly doing great good for many of this locality. People are calling from every direction to report much improvement, after using the great remedy, a short while. Many come from the county to get some of the remedy, and those who have used a bottle or so are very enthusiastic in praise of it. A. A. Strait said: "I came after some of that wonderful Root Juice because my neighbor, Mrs. Ben Goodwin, has been taking it, and she, after taking six bottles of Root Juice looks ten years younger. The great improvement is very noticeable to all of her friends."

Lorenzo Staley said: "My wife suffered a long time with stomach, liver and kidney troubles, rheumatism and pains and aches all over her body. She was very nervous and her general system was all run down. Her troubles were treated for months with hope of ever being any better. When she started with Root Juice we had but little faith, but after taking three bottles of the juice, we could notice that she was improving. She has used just nine bottles of the medicine and her pains and aches are all gone. She eats like a pig and digests everything she eats. She is now a well woman, thanks to Root Juice. We can't say too much in praise of it."

We are told that the Root Juice Medicine Company, of Port Wayne, Ind., freely gives information to all that write for it. C. E. Anderson's drug store is doing a rushing business with it.

"POLE, POLE, WHO'S GOT THE POLE?"

There promises to be the warmest worldwide debate over the coldest question ever known, when Peary gets back and he and Cook meet. Already Peary has wired that Cook is a liar and a shortskeater or words to that effect, saying that the Eskimos who were with Cook declare they never went anywhere near the north pole. Cook, in the mean time, says he will prove his story, indicating that he chipped a piece off the pole and brought it along as evidence. Two things are certain; Americans are in for the glory of it no matter which one wins the talk-fest; and if Dr. Cook really has been four flushing, as Peary declares, he might just as well go back and live at the north pole. It wouldn't be any colder than any place else to him.

A STRONG NOMINATION

One of the strong nominations made at the Republican primary Tuesday was that of C. O. Turner for solicitor, and who through a typographical error was omitted in the editorial of Wednesday. Mr. Turner is an active young attorney whose hustling qualities were evidenced by the way in which he went after the nomination. If there is any position that demands a young man of mental activity it is that of the city solicitor. Already there is talk of the Democratic nominee withdrawing from the race.

The opening of school will doubtless again prove that every room is crowded beyond capacity. Yet think how disconsolate we would all be if the rooms were only half filled. It is a good sign to always need more room.

Millinery Opening at Ruth Jones

Commencing Friday evening at 7:30 and continuing all day Saturday and Sunday evening we will have our first display of Autumn millinery. We are having our opening earlier than we anticipated owing to the fact that our customers are demanding it. They are wanting their hats and are buying hats, so what is the use of keeping all these patterns hid away. We have an elegant line of stylish good looking patterns besides the pretty designs gotten up by our head trimmer.

Mrs. W. W. Fletcher. It is not necessary to advertise our trimmer, and her very able assistants as all Coshocton and vicinity know that the hats designed by Mrs. Fletcher can not be improved upon in this locality or any other. Music by the orchestra Friday and Saturday evening. The store will be open promptly at 7:30 P. M.

New Dress Accessories

New Dress Accessories came yesterday and today are being put on display. You'll see a representative showing in one of our windows—New Jabots and Fancy Collars at 25 and 50 cents. Belt Pins that are beauties at 25 and 50 cents, with unusually pretty ones at 25c. Bags in Tan and Black at 50c, $1, $1.50 and up to $3.50 for an extra large one. Hat Pins the very newest effects at 25c and 50c and lots of other little "necessaries" for the ladies' finishing touches.

BY THE TEST OF COMPARISON OUR SUITS STAND ALONE

We believe there isn't a lady in Coshocton who if she will examine the fabrics, workmanship and style in these new Fall Suits, will fail to say they are the best she ever saw for the prices. The more you compare OUR Suits with those from OTHER stores, the sooner will you realize that OURS ARE THE BEST and then, if you intend buying a Suit we know ours will receive an enthusiastic welcome. In the first place they are modern to a degree—the coats are long and gracefully cut in the most approved way—the skirts are also according to the newest style—mostly with the cluster pleat effects and with the panel on the back—A very attractive model. The materials are correct and the tailoring faultless—A most happy combination and one always demanded by us from the makers. We make the price right too and show wonderful values from $10 to $37.50 with four extra strong lines at $15, $19, $22.50, $25

One of the best proofs of our Suit "betterness" is the fact that the women who "look around" invariably come back here to buy. Won't you come and see what makes them come back? New Suits and Coats are arriving daily and are ready for your inspection. Come!

INDEX SUGGESTS FIRE DEPARTMENT FOR LAFAYETTE

Since the fire at West Lafayette last week, during which the Dickey meat market and the Dickey brothers' residence was burned; and the Geo. Shaw and Benjamin Stoneburner buildings were damaged by fire, the town has waked up to the importance of better fire protection. A few hand extinguishers and a bucket brigade were all that stood between the town and destruction. Had the wind been favorable a much larger amount of destruction would have resulted.

It is now probable that a volunteer fire company will be organized, and a chemical engine purchased by the town.—Newcomerstown Index.

THOMAS PAGE

Thomas Page, who take care of the two Coshocton cemeteries in a most excellent manner.

Artificial Lake To Be Built At South Lawn Cemetery

Thomas Page states that there are still a large number of good lots for sale in South Lawn cemetery. There are in all twenty-five acres of ground in the cemetery but only about twelve acres have been plotted. The entire south section is a cornfield at present. In the twelve acres now in use there are many good lots still unsold and many cheaper ones. The lots range in price from $20 to $100.

Mr. Page keeps the cemetery in excellent condition and the men who originally purchased the ground used good business judgment in looking to the future as there is space enough to provide a resting place for Coshocton's dead for several years to come. It is planned to construct an artificial lake on the east side of the cemetery. Already a place has been scooped out. When the lake is completed it will greatly enhance the beauty of the cemetery, which is rapidly becoming one of the prettiest burying grounds in Ohio. Those who have relatives buried there should take pride in beautifying the graves and in assisting Mr. Page in every way to keep the cemetery looking nice.

CLEANS THE COMPLEXION OVERNIGHT

Pimples, Rash, Eruptions, Etc., Quickly Eradicated by New Skin Remedy.
Ever since its discovery, poslam, the new skin remedy, has, in its extraordinary accomplishments, exceeded the most sanguine expectations of the eminent specialist who gave it to the world. It has cured thousands of cases of eczema and eradicated facial and other disfigurements of years' standing. The terrible itching attending eczema is stopped with the first application giving proof of its curative properties at the very outset.

In less serious skin affections, such as pimples, rash, herpes, blackheads, acne, barber's itch, etc., results show after an overnight application, only a small quantity being required to effect a cure. Those who use poslam for these minor skin troubles should immediately secure one of the special 50-cent packages recently adopted to meet such needs. Both the 50-cent package and the regular $2 jar may be obtained in Coshocton at C. E. Anderson's and other leading drug stores.

Samples for experimental purposes may be had free of charge by writing direct to the Emergency Laboratories 32 West Twenty-fifth-st., New York City.

CLOW COMPANY BUILDING ITS POWER PLANT

The first story is erected of the Clow company's power plant in South Coshocton. The tardiness in the arrival of some large beams is delaying the building just now. The trouble is some of the equipment which is needed last is arriving first and the equipment which is needed now is slow in coming. The company is building its own power plant, this building not being included in the contract of Layster & Lowe of Dayton who erected the other buildings. "Of course we can't do very much work until we get power" said Superintendent Aland today. "It's hard to tell just when we will get the plant started but we hope to start up next month."

With proper knowledge of what is best, each hour of recreation, of enjoyment, of contemplation and of effort may be made to contribute to living aright. Then the use of medicines may be dispensed with to advantage, but under ordinary conditions in many instances a simple, wholesome remedy may be invaluable if taken at the proper time and the California Fig Syrup Co. holds that it is alike important to present the subject truthfully and to supply the one perfect laxative to those desiring it.

HEAD OF BUSINESS COLLEGE WAS REARED AT WEST BEDFORD

Selby G. Buxton, the new local head of the commercial department of the Coshocton Meredith Business college, is a Coshocton county boy, having been born and reared near West Bedford, where his family is a prominent one. He is a graduate of the Meredith college at Zanesville and has also been a teacher there. FINDS HONEY CROP LIGHT THIS YEAR

M. J. Schott of Summit Co. formerly of Coshocton has been paying some attention to the Honey Bee in this and adjoining counties and would advise his Coshocton-co. friends to look well to their apiaries as the Honey is almost a total failure this season so the Bees will have to be supplied with food or be lost. The red bees will all be starved out this winter.

Mr. Schott has found two bee trees this summer. One was cut a short time ago and very little honey was found, but contained the largest swarm he ever saw. It was estimated at one and one-half bushels of solid bees, another tree will be cut in cold weather. He would not cut it at all but the bees will be sure to starve anyway. Last week he examined bees working buckwheat in Portage co. They were getting little honey for the would wander over the weeds in search of honey. Mr. Schott never cut a tree until first consulting the owner.

COMFORTING WORDS

Many a Coshocton Household Will Find Them So

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed; to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. To tell how this great change can be brought about will prove comforting words to hundreds of Coshocton readers.

Mrs. J. K. Moore, W. Main-st., Newcomerstown, O., says: "I am constantly recommending Doan's Kidney Pills in return for the great benefit they have brought in my immediate family. During the summer of 1905, I gave a public statement, telling how this remedy had cured a member of my household of a severe attack of backache and kidney complaint. No. after a lapse of nearly three years, I can say that there has been no return of any kidney disorder in this case. I cheerfully confirm my former testimonial." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McIlburn Co., Buffalo, New York. Sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

WILLS CREEK HAS "HOE-DOWNS" IN NEW DANCE HALL

Wills Creek young people are making the most of the balmy evenings of the fading summer. Grant Swain has transformed a corn-crib into a dancing pavilion and dances are held on an average of once a week. The one last Saturday night was a huge success. There is room for four "sets" and when the fiddle starts up the young men swing their partners and the pace is very exhilarating.

WINTER ON THE FARM

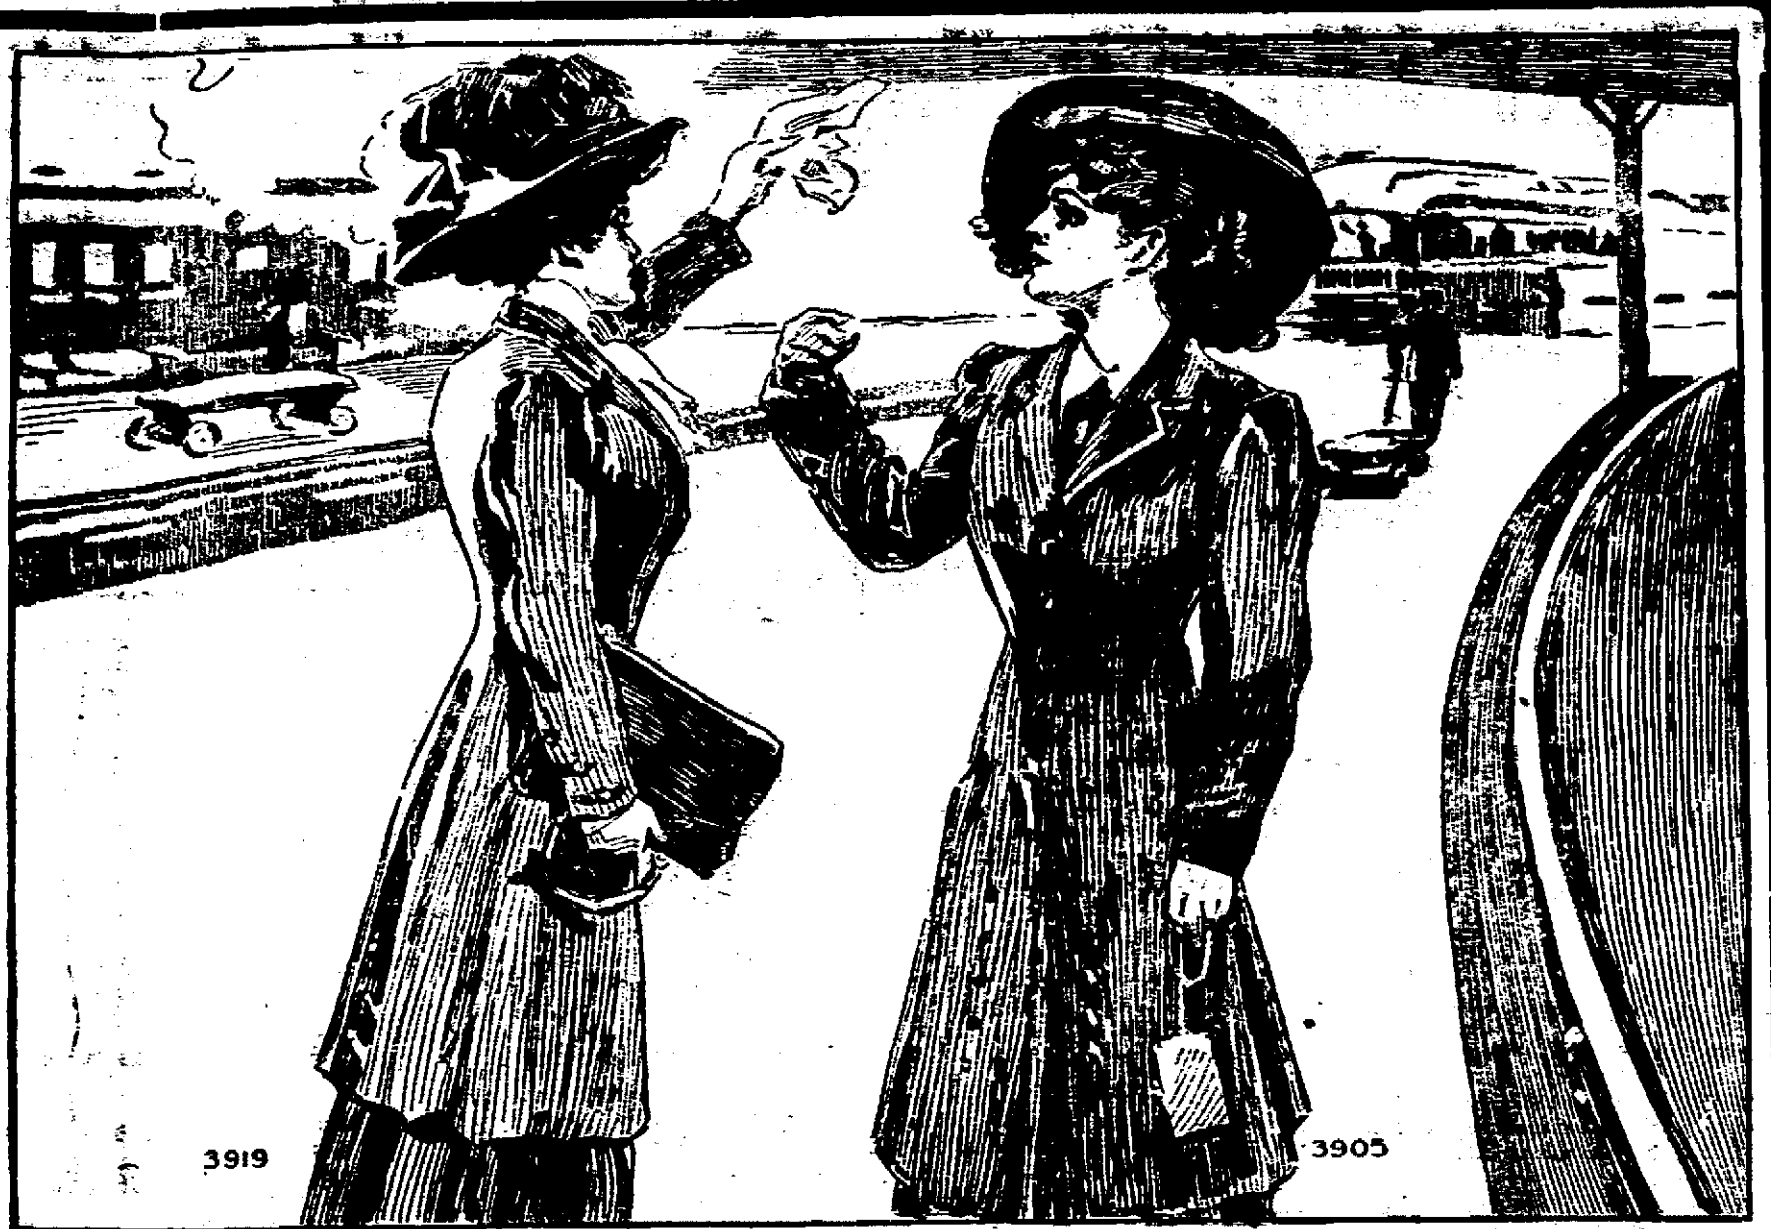

When the frost is on the window and you have to stay in doors, and the snow in piling drifts prevents your doing outside chores; when you're tired of sitting round the stove with nothing much to do, it's very likely this suggestion will appeal to you. Perhaps there is around the house a table or a chair, one that still is strong, but which of finish is quite bare. A can of Spartan Stain would make these pieces look like new, and while you're resting you might paint a bedroom floor or two. You can renew the finish on old furniture or the woodwork of a room with Spartan Stain. Manufactured by The Marietta Paint & Color Co., Marietta, Ohio. Sold by Fleming & Gray, Coshocton, Ohio.

DECLARES HE ONLY WANTS TO BE CITY SOLICITOR

"What. Me withdraw from the ticket? Not on your tinfoil," thus quoth Hon. John C. Adams, the Democratic nominee for city solicitor, whom Dame Rumor declared would withdraw to stalk as a dark horse candidate for Ashbrook's congressional toga. "Not after the hard fight I made to get the nomination. I'd rather be solicitor than state senator." And that is going some, for the senator ship always looks good to John. Turner will make John sit up late at nights trying to figure out how to win.

THE PRICE OF THESE PARIS SUITS IS PROMPTNESS

The charm of these garments lies not alone in their beauty of line and in their originality of design. It lies, as well, in their exclusiveness.

Out of every 1,000 women who appreciate good clothes, only eight can get WOOLTEX.

The 992 who are disappointed must content themselves with garments which utterly lack WOOLTEX style—WOOLTEX individuality—WOOLTEX quality. It is not a matter of price. It is a matter of promptness.

Those who shop early get WOOLTEX.

The extra value which you get in WOOLTEX costs you no extra money. But to be sure of a WOOLTEX coat, suit, skirt or dress this fall, you must start right now.

The ideas for WOOLTEX styles come from Paris, from London, from New York—they come also from Berlin, Vienna—sometimes even from Japan and Greece.

The WOOLTEX style organization covers the whole world of fashion just as a great daily newspaper covers the whole world of news.

Together with Madame Savarie, eight master designers create the new WOOLTEX styles each season. But WOOLTEX value does not stop with style. It only begins there.

For in every WOOLTEX garment extra quality materials—extra careful workmanship.

The result is that the same money which you willingly pay for a common garment will buy a WOOLTEX garment—if you are prompt.

The extra quality materials cost you nothing extra.

The extra careful workmanship costs you nothing extra.
